

ENGHUM workshop and final event 15-16.11.2018

15.11.2018 Thursday, Day 1 (Dobra 72, Conference room)

8:00 – 12:30 Digital humanities (with coffee break 30 min.)

CLARIN Workshop: presentation of the CLARIN project and its tools (DSpace, Clarin Cloud and Inforex)

12:30 – 13:30 Lunch break

13:30 – 16:30 Discussion (the project participants, moderator: dr Przemysław Pawelec): Evaluation of the ENGHUM execution, outcomes and impact. Partner organizations and community members are invited to address the following topics:

- The original goals of the project: have they been addressed/achieved?
- What would we do the same or differently?
- What is our experience of cross-European and extra-academic collaboration?
- Have we succeeded? What can be improved for future collaborations?
- What have we learned?
- Confronting theory with practice in language revitalization and engaged academic research: lessons and thoughts to share
- The outputs and deliverables: what do they say about our project? (e.g. the films and photos in terms of how they portray our work and what messages and ideologies they present about endangered languages, participatory action research and community engagement).
- What have we learned from community members and local communities?
- The impact on of the project and capacity-building for community participants; small-group discussions on issues such as human capacity building, publications, mentoring, career development for early career researchers.

17:00 – 17:45 Keynote lecture: Prof. Grażyna Jasińska (Collegium Medicum Jagiellonian University and the Salus Publica Foundation) Why understanding of human health needs evolutionary perspective: trade-offs, constraints and intergenerational effects

17:45 – 18:15 Questions and discussion

16.11.2018 Friday, Day 2 (Dobra 72, Conference room)

9:30 – 11:45 Concluding session of the Enghum project

9:30 – 10:00 Presentations of the project results

10:00 – 11:00 Concluding perspectives on the project. Community members, Leiden, London, Warsaw.

11:00 – 11:30 Panel discussion on the experience and future impact of the Enghum project

Participants: Justyna Olko, John Sullivan, Bartek Chromik, Stanisław Kordasiewicz, Joanna Maryniak, Justyna Majerska-Sznajder, Tymoteusz Król – University of Warsaw; Julia Sallabank, Peter Austin, Ebany Dohle, SOAS University of London; Willem Adelaar – Leiden University

11:30 – 11:45 Presentation of the Enghum culmination movie

11:45 – 12:30 Coffee and sandwich break

- Foto gallery exhibition “My Language. My culture”

12:30 – 12:55 Walk to the Polish Theatre (Kazimierza Karasia 2)

13:00 “Ymertihła”, a play performed in Wymysiöeryś by the “Ufa fisa” theater group from Wilamowice

15:00 Lunch (Rewers Restaurant, University of Warsaw Library, Dobra 56/66)

16:00 – 17:00 Perspectives of new speakers of endangered languages and the ENGHUM participants: informal discussion with the teenagers from Wilamowice, in Polish and Wymysiöeryś, with translation for non-speakers. (Dobra 72, room 9)

Engaged humanities in Europe: Capacity building for participatory research in linguistic-cultural heritage. This project has received funding from the European Union’s Horizon 2020 research and innovation programme under grant agreement No 692199.

